Aberdeen is a great place to live. Do you think so too? In Aberdeen there are many things to do and see, like parks, beaches, good schools, good safety fun events, and various types of people. We have fun parks that kids can play on, and where parents can have leisure time. Parents can also enjoy watching their kids have fun and meet new friends.

Also, there is Cliffwood Beach. People can relax on the beaches, and cool off in the cool ocean water. Also you can go skating, fishing, or play basketball on the court. Cliffwood beach is a great place to have fun and relax, and also to go fishing.

Aberdeen has good schools, too. While parents are at work they don't have to worry about their kids, because they are in a good school. There are seven public schools in Aberdeen. These schools have great teachers that encourage your kids to learn.

One special thing about Aberdeen is the police station. The Aberdeen police officers are very hard working. They keep Everywhere in Aberdeen there are fun events going on, like the Aberdeen egg hunt, when kids can enjoy looking for Easter eggs. Also we have Aberdeen Day, or the Christmas Tree lighting, when people gather around a giant Christmas tree while someone lights it.

There is one more thing that is the best about Aberdeen. The people! There are all kinds of people. Like Spanish, French, Italian, and English people. There are also different types of people. There are boys, girls, parents, and grandparents. Everyone in Aberdeen is nice and friendly. It is easy to meet new people to have fun with. No matter who or what color you are you can always live in Aberdeen. That is why Aberdeen is a nice place to live!
